

COOLING DRINKS

at our Drug Store

When you become well acquainted with our joy-giving, cooling fount you'll be glad the warm days are here so you can work up a thirst. We QUENCH IT so agreeably.

Our cooling drinks are also healthful; the pure syrups and rich cream we use are splendid FOODS. The children like them and they are food for the CHILDREN.

Kelly Drug Company

The Rexall Store

We give you what you ASK for.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Floyd Olinger, of Olinger, was in town Friday on business.

J. A. Youell, of Olinger, was in the Gap Saturday on business.

J. Blair Easter, of Dante, spent Saturday and Sunday in the Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Wells, of Corbin, and sister Miss Nina Johnson, spent a few days at Glamorgan last week with relatives.

J. M. Barr, a well known coal operator of Norfolk, was a business visitor to the Gap last week.

F. R. Gant, of the Sparger Mill Company of Bristol, was calling on the trade in the Gap last week.

W. H. Gildersleeve, of Johnson City, spent several days last week in town on business.

H. Stringfield, of Logansport, Ind., was a visitor to the Gap last Thursday.

J. H. Whitten, of Chattanooga, was in town Friday.

Mrs. M. E. Otekin has gone to Hannibal, Mo., where she will spend some time visiting relatives and friends.

Embery White, of Bristol, was in town last week on business.

J. C. Smith was down from Clintwood one day last week on business.

Vivian Mouser returned Friday night from a few weeks' stay in Asheville, where he attended the Students Military Camp.

W. J. Rice, of Blacksburg, was in the city Saturday.

Attorney H. R. Hawthorne, of Tazewell, was in the city several days last week.

W. E. Gibson, was up from Ewing last Friday.

Mrs. John A. Esser and daughter, Miss Esther Esser, of Norton, were guests of friends in the Gap last Friday.

Frank Bell, route agent for the Southern Express Company, was in town Friday on business.

J. T. Menefee, of Knoxville, was in the city Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Compton and children, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Wheeler and children and R. E. Kennedy motored to Norton Sunday afternoon.

J. M. Grindstaff, of Morris-town, was a visitor to the Gap on last Friday.

B. L. Armstrong, a well known traveling salesman of Knoxville, was among the knights of the grip who spent Friday in the Gap.

Myron Marsh, of Roanoke, was in the city Friday on business.

Just think, 65 pair woman's sample low shoes worth $3.00 and $3.50, will go at 75 cents per pair in Fullers' final mid-summer clearance sale.—adv.

Little Misses Ruth and Katherine Barron are visiting relatives in Scott county this week.

Fred J. King, who has a prominent position with the Clinchfield Coal Company at Dante spent Sunday in the Gap with friends.

Miss Kate Cherry, of Norton, spent a few days in the Gap last week with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Kelly.

Miss Laura Mae Bailey, of Olinger was shopping in the Gap Saturday.

Misses Alice and Flora Bruce left Sunday for Dorchester, where they have accepted positions in the public school, which began Monday.

Miss Retta Thompson spent a few days last week down in the Cove visiting her grandfather, John Gilley.

Miss Julie Bullitt spent a few days last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Jack Taggart, at Keokee.

R. E. Kennedy, the bustling merchant in the east end of town, left Tuesday morning for a month's vacation at Hot Springs, Ark.

Mrs. W. C. Giles and grandson, Hubert Masters, left Sunday for a visit of ten days to friends and relatives at Kyles Ford, Tenn.

FOR RENT—4 unfurnished up stairs rooms, access to phone and water. Near V. & S. W. Depot. For particulars call phone No. 102-3 rings.

J. W. Sprinkle, of Carrie, Va., was in town this week on business.

Mrs. Sally A. Bailey spent several days last week visiting friends and relatives at Esserville, Wise and Hurricane, near Wise.

Misses Madge Dingess and Janet Bailey and J. W. Rush motored up to Keokee Wednesday afternoon and spent a few hours with Miss Emma Bass.

R. C. Snipes, of the C. C. & O., with headquarters at Norton, was in the city Saturday on business.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Ladies Parlor with Mrs. R. D. Baker leader.

Wade M. Miles, of Wise, spent several days last week in the Gap on business.

T. H. Wheeler, a prominent contractor of Clarksdale, Miss., is spending this week with his family, who are visiting here.

Miss Mary Conner, who has been spending several weeks visiting friends at different points, returned to the Gap last week and is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Pierpont, on Imboden Hill.

Mrs. Margaret Dennison, of East Stone Gap, spent a few days in the Gap last week with Mrs. Addison Morris.

Misses Arline and Oma Gardner, of Norton, spent several days in the Gap last week visiting Miss Della Parsons, who lives near the L. & N. Depot.

Mrs. Alva Myers, of Pennington Gap, is spending several days in the Gap visiting relatives.

Buy your low shoes at Fullers' final mid-summer clearance sale.—adv.

Miss Helen Nichols, of Norfolk, who has been the attractive guest of her sister, Mrs. L. B. Montague, at the Monte Vista Hotel for several weeks, left Saturday for Bristol, where she will spend a few days visiting Mrs. Harry Shelton before returning to her home.

W. B. Gilbert, of Bristol, with the Standard Oil Company of Bristol, was calling on the trade in the Gap Saturday.

R. A. and E. V. Wells, of Rogersville, were in the city Saturday.

N. J. Wagner, a well known business man of Mountain City, Tenn., was in town Saturday.

Mrs. Younge and daughter, of Richmond, were guests at the Monte Vista several days the past week.

F. J. King, of Dante, spent Sunday in the Gap.

J. Blair Easter, of Dante, spent Sunday in the Gap.

Misses Lucile and Mary Blair Martin spent a few days last week visiting relatives in Norton.

Miss Rose Hamilton, of Middleboro, is spending several days in the Gap visiting her aunt, Mrs. M. V. Wells, and cousin, Mrs. W. L. Jones.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Stone July 15th, a girl, which has been named Margaret Cosby.

Mrs. H. E. Benedict and daughter, Miss Sophia, spent Sunday in Appalachia with friends.

For Sale

Jelly Glasses in any quantity, 15c per dozen. J. A. Sterne, Mgr. Monte Vista Hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. Hagy and sisters, Misses Hanna Mae and Josephine Hamilton, of Imboden, motored down to the Gap Saturday.

R. B. Alsover left last Thursday morning for Mauch Chunk, Pa., where he will spend some time with Mrs. Alsover and the children visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Kathryn Young, of Richmond, arrived in the Gap Saturday from Dante, where she has been spending several weeks, the guest of Mrs. Victor S. Paine. Her mother joined her here and they will spend a few weeks at the Monte Vista Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mouser, of Appalachia, spent Sunday in the Gap with Mr. and Mrs. Otis Mouser, on Poplar Hill.

All laces and embroideries will be included in Fullers' final mid-summer clearance sale.—adv.

Misses Thelma and Mary Baker and cousin, Jack Hyatt, of Abingdon, returned this week from a several days visit to Mrs. W. D. McNeal at Wise.

Mrs. Will Hall and two small sons, of Norton, is spending a few days in the Gap this week visiting Miss Madge Dingess.

Mrs. J. P. Wolfe, who has been confined to her room at her home on Imboden Hill with laparitis for several days, is able to be out again.

W. T. Alsover returned last Wednesday night from a visit to relatives and friends at Mauch Chunk, Pa. His family who accompanied him will remain in the Keystone state for several weeks longer.

Miss Mollie Guthrie, of Bulls Gap, Tenn., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Moore, near the Virginia and Southwestern depot.

The Guild of Christ Church will meet Thursday afternoon at four o'clock with Mrs. George L. Taylor.

D. H. Bostic purchased a Ford touring car last week from C. C. Long, the popular automobile dealer.

Mrs. R. A. Ayers and granddaughter, Miss Margaret Pettit left last week for Washington Springs, where they will spend several days.

Mrs. C. C. Blair and Miss Maggie Williams, of Gate City, are in the Gap this week visiting their brother, R. C. Williams, who holds a position with the Stonega Coke and Coal Company at this place.

Mrs. Guy Stone is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Taylor, at Fleming, Ky., this week. Mr. Stone accompanied her over there Saturday night and spent Sunday.

Miss Nemo Vineyard and Lillian Head returned Friday night from Cincinnati, where they have been for some time studying music at the conservatory.

Miss Corrine Taylor, who holds a position in Lynchburg as telephone operator in the Dr. Clark Building, is visiting her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Henry Taylor in the Gap.

Remember the final mid-summer clearance sale at Fullers' only lasts 4 days.—adv.

Rev. Hubard Lloyd will preach in Christ Episcopal Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Dr. W. G. Painter, spent a few days last week at Pulaski.

Tom Coshran is on an extended visit to relatives in Charlottesville.

Rev. Hubard Lloyd, who spent some time at Catawba and other Virginia points for his health, has returned to his home in the Gap, greatly improved.

Miss Carolyn Mathews, of Frankfort, Ky., is spending several days here visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. F. Burgess.

FOUND—A pair of new slippers on the pike on Poplar Hill. Owner can have same by applying to this office, describing them, and paying for this advertisement.

For Sale

Jelly Glasses in any quantity, 15c per dozen. J. A. Sterne, Manager Monte Vista Hotel.

Vudor Porch Shades

Porch Furniture Swings

W. W. TAYLOR & SONS

Ice Cream Freezers

You can do nothing wiser than invest a little money in one of our quick ice cream freezers. Then you will enjoy cooling and delicious refreshments during the hot weather.

Come and let us show you a freezer that for little cost will bring cool comfort in the hot days for many summers to come.

HAMBLEN BROTHERS

HARDWARE AND GROCERIES

Special Notice!

We will offer and sell all stock on hand at 20 per cent discount during the week of August 3rd to spot cash buyers at the counter. We are sending out posters this week which our customers and the public should read

E. F. Burgess, Phone 63.

Bargains in Low Shoes

AT

D. C. WOLFE'S

We have a line of low Shoes left yet which will be sold regardless of cost, and all other Summer Goods will be sold at a bargain.

Sailor Straw Hats

that others sell for $1.50, will be sold at 50c.

WHAT BUSINESS COLLEGE?

The question is vital. It makes us start in life. No other business colleges are like this. They offer students, who want the best, many things people have never dreamed of and never attending a college, even of the most liberal business college in the world. Commercial or southern department of a university or library school.

No school in the world offers such a plan. Careful investigation alone will bring them out. The ROANOKE National Business College ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

A Commercial School of the higher order. The one big Business College of Virginia will stand the plain investigation.

Two teachers, $2,000 building and equipment, two Commercial Departments, Banking and Office Department, Telegraphy, Stenography, and Typewriting, Shorthand Department, and a full business course.

Banking authorized by the Federal Reserve Act. Positions for qualified students. Bookkeeping and Commercial Course for the young men who prefer to stay on the farm.

All these advantages, one of all studies, the student needs only $10.00, nine months $20.00, twelve months $30.00. Tuition with books, light, heat, etc., but with today for free catalogue, college journal and specimens of penmanship.

Address: E. M. COULTIER, Pres., Roanoke, Va.

Radford State Normal School For Women

Second session opens September the 9, 1914. Every course leads to a Virginia Certificate to teach. Free tuition to all teachers and those promising to teach. Offers all courses usually given in a first-class Normal School. Expenses very moderate. For catalogue, booklet of views and full information write—

J. P. McCONNELL, President, East Radford, Va.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and Agricultural and Mechanical College

BEACSBURG, VIRGINIA

Thirteen degree courses in Agriculture, Engineering and Applied Science. Two-Year course in Agriculture and Farmers' Winter Courses.

J. D. EGGLESTON, President.

Apply to Registrar for catalogue.

Our Advertisements Are Store News

Readers of this paper are urged to read all of our ads. We will try to fill our advertising space with store news—and hope you find them interesting reading matter.

There is no better way of keeping posted on up-to-date fashions, preparations, etc., than through the reading of retail ads. Our ads are changed in each issue of this paper. They are readable—they are reasonable. Look for them.

MUTUAL DRUG CO.

BIG STONE GAP, VA.